Bridges To Progress

A FOUNDATION

Built of friends, experiences,

Broken dreams, and abstract philosophies.

We came to change the world

But the world changes us.

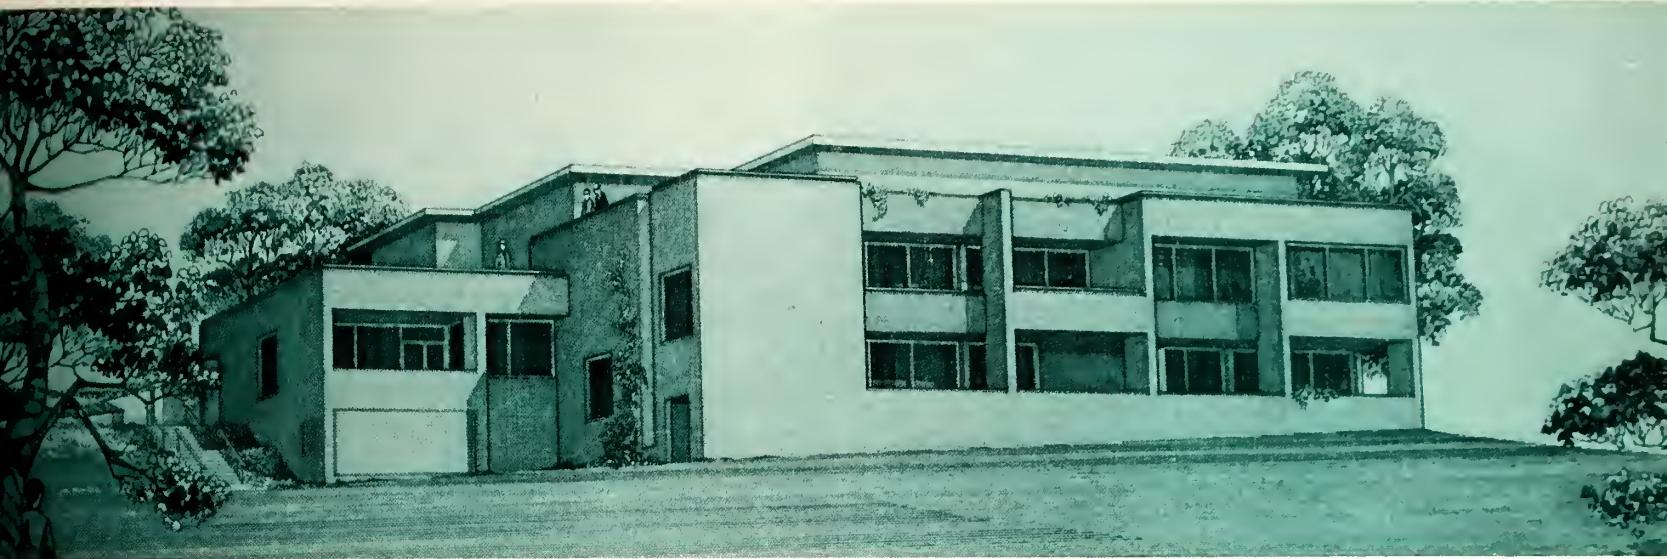

We Grow
With Old FSC

Enjoying
Another
Century

ACTIVITY

We meet activity as we progress from day to day.

Academic, Social, and Athletic events

Help to expose us to the enjoyment of life

And the responsibilities of living.

PROGRESS
Fairmont
State
College
1968

Activity Forms Bridges Too

ENTHUSIASM

We take an active part in everything

That is about us.

Our cheerleaders are vibrant

And our student body is fun-loving.

Steeped In Tradition

TRADITION

We are built upon those things which make
A college a college—its traditions.

The Victory Bell, a class ring, a beanie,
Greeks, The "Nickel", and Senior Walk are
The traditions left to us by previous
Students at FSC.

WISDOM

We find wisdom in many forms—

In the classroom, at study, and at our

First social function.

It is through this wisdom that we are Able to progress in our college life.

Wisdom Is Many Things—

Next Century—
Here We Come

1917 Class—Charter Members FSC Emeritus Club

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the executive board of the student government organization, one member elected by the non-fraternity group and one faculty representative appointed by the President of the College.

One of the principle assignments of the Student Council is to meet at the beginning of each semester to determine the allocation of the student activity funds among the various campus activities and organizations. The budgets prepared are then published so that all students may know for what purposes their fees are being used.

BLAZERS

To be elected a member of Blazers, Senior Woman's Honorary, organized in 1947, is a distinction highly honored by every woman at Fairmont State College. Each year outstanding senior women are elected to this honorary organization. Women elected must have the qualities of scholarship, leadership, loyalty, and integrity and in addition, candidates must have earned at least a 2.85 average by the end of the fall term of their junior year.

BLAZERS—First r., J. Bock, B. Shreve, C. Ballah; second r., S. Hess, K. Spidle, S. Clelland, Suzanne Snyder, faculty advisor.

FLAMES

Junior Women's Honorary, a chapter organization of Blazers, was organized in May of 1966 on Recognition Day. The purpose of this organization is to give acknowledgment to the outstanding junior woman who possesses qualities of leadership and scholarship and who has given service to the college.

FLAMES—Barbara Nailler, faculty advisor: P. Horky, M. Frye, B. Wrachford.

FASHION BOARD

Shown are members of the Fairmont State College Mademoiselle fashion board. Sponsored by a leading downtown store, the board is comprised of two girls from each campus sorority, as well as four independents. The board meets each month to discuss latest style trends on campus, as well as to learn of fashion developments in the New York and foreign markets.

Associated Women Students

Associated Women Students is a group organized at Fairmont State College on April 9, 1964. It is composed of women's groups and all women on campus. The organization gives service and opportunity for women to set and maintain their own standards and to govern themselves. The purposes of Associated Women Students are to provide leadership for self-government, to promote good social relationships between all women's groups, and to stimulate a greater appreciation of cultural and academic affairs.

Local chapters of the organization may, after a probationary period, affiliate with the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students, which is a national organization for women at colleges throughout the United States.

ALPHA ALPHA ALPHA

Founded in 1958, the Alpha Alpha Alpha business honorary at Fairmont State College was organized to promote interest in the study of business. The functions of the honorary are dinner meetings and trips to business firms. Its purpose is to acquaint the students with the type of people they will be working with in the future.

DORM PRESIDENTS

These students represent the five dormitories on campus—Morrow Hall, North Hall, Pence Hall, and privately owned Morgan Hall and Garden Lane Apartments. Their purpose is to plan social functions.

DORM PRESIDENTS—Row 1: P. Pickering, T. Cunningham, K. Spidle.

KAPPA GAMMA

Kappa Gamma, the Fairmont State College debate honorary, was reestablished last year as a part of the debate club. The honorary is open to those college debaters who have participated with skill in a minimum of five rounds of inter-collegiate debate. The officers of the debate club must have qualified for membership in Kappa Gamma.

KAPPA GAMMA—Seated, B. Shreve, E. Irvin; standing, J. Bock, Suzanne Snyder, faculty advisor.

BETA BETA BETA

Beta Beta Beta, National Biology Honorary, was founded in 1922 at the University of Oklahoma. Its objectives are scholarship and the promotion of biological research. Each year the Beta Beta Beta chapter at Fairmont State College sponsors a National Science Day to which students of area high schools are invited.

BETA BETA BETA—Seated, F. Currence, G. Greene, M. Ash, M. Ash, M. Cole, G. Garlow; standing, Dr. R. Amos, faculty advisor; G. Cunningham, D. Kendall, D. Williams, Dr. W. Creasy, faculty advisor.

H. Hill, C. Ballah, P. Monell; third r., K. Spidel, J. Bock, S. Hess, S. Clelland.

WHO'S WHO

Each year Fairmont State College honors a few select students by naming them to Who's Who. The ones selected are outstanding students who have shown the characteristics of scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and promise of future usefulness. Students are selected once a year by an impartial council of seven juniors and sophomores and six faculty members. Those chosen are listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities and are given certificates on Recognition Day.

LAMBDA DELTA LAMBDA

Lambda Delta Lambda, national physical science honorary, was founded at Fairmont State College in 1925. In order to qualify for membership in this select group, a student must have an overall 3.00 grade average and a 3.00 average in at least 14 hours of chemistry and physics.

LAMBDA DELTA LAMBDA—Donald Miller, Gerry Newbraugh, Mary Young, Terry Groff.

FRESHMAN COUNSELORS

Freshman week is the time of action for the hard working Freshman Counselors. Their membership includes the five Student Council elected officers and all the past counselors who are in good standing concerning; leadership, citizenship, and scholarship. The rest of the quota is open to anyone in the student body who qualifies. The final selection is based upon academic standing, leadership qualities, character, citizenship, and school services.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

First row. E. Hall, P. Parrish, K. Bitonti; second row. B. McClung, R. Snider.

National recognition has been given to the dramatics department of Fairmont State College through the founding in 1925 by Dr. Paul Opp of Alpha Psi Omega, the national dramatics honorary. The Alpha Chapter was founded to promote interest in dramatic production through the presenting of drama to the students and community. Members of the honorary are chosen through their participation and interest in dramatics.

EPSILON PI TAU

Epsilon Pi Tau, an Industrial Arts and Industrial Vocational Education, Inter-national Honorary Society organized in 1920, was installed the Alpha Upsilon Chapter at Fairmont State on March 29, 1955, by its founder Dr. William E. Warner. Epsilon Pi Tau is strictly a professional organization with membership limited by grades, character, and promise of professional growth. All members are responsible for one meeting, expected to attend state meetings and are hosts to a state meeting. Its purpose is the professional development of promising young leaders in Industrial Arts and Industrial Vocational Education. About one half of its members enter the teaching field.

FRESHMEN PLEDGE

Freshman Orientation

The Freshman Class of 1967 arrived, and the campus took on a maroon look as a thousand beanies were issued. For one week, the campus belonged only to the freshmen and their counselors. In one week, freshmen suffered through the pandemonium of registration and the bookstore line, met friends they will keep for years, and acquainted themselves with the campus in general. Social events included a torch-light parade, the Freshman Tea, and the Freshman Mixer. All this consumed their time for five days. Then the upperclassmen arrived, and many freshmen were heard to give a sigh of relief. After surviving Orientation Week, they were ready to face the regular routine of college life.

(FM-1) Fairmont, W.Va. Nov. 4—THIS TOUCHDOWN BEAT WAYNESBURG—Fairmont State's Ron Robinson (20) is shown diving across end zone with 40 seconds left with touchdown that upset powerful Waynesburg College, 7-0. Score came on 15-yard pass. Jackets shown are Fred Stahlman (10) and Ron Karpiak (11). Waynesburg was NO. 1 NAIA team in nation.

National Champs

Fairmont State's mighty football Falcons, a team that never lost its courage in the face of adversity or never quit when they found themselves behind, wound up the 1967 football season the proud owners of a WVIAC Conference title and an unprecedented National Championship. The Falcons showed their superiority over 500 member schools in the NAIA.

Several members of the champs received special recognition for their efforts. Head football coach, Harold S. "Deacon" Duvall, led the way by being named small college coach of the year by the influential Washington Touchdown Club. Deacon was also named West Virginia Coach of the Year for an unheard of third time and was named NAIA Coach of the Year.

Two Falcon seniors were named to past season All-American squads. Guard Dave Williams was named to the Associated Press small college All-America Squad while star fullback Larry Blackstone was named to the NAIA mythical squad.

Five Falcons were named to the WVIAC All Conference team. Seniors Marvin Williams, Dave Williams, Martin "Sonny" Bartic, Larry Blackstone, and Junior Jim Mertens were all honored by conference coaches for their outstanding gridiron season.

Larry Blackstone, the outstanding Falcon fullback who finished third in the NAIA in rushing, was drafted by the American Football League Champion, Oakland Raiders.

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
"Deacon" Duvall

This year Coach "Deacon" Duvall realized several dreams which he has kept in the back of his mind for several years. "Deacon" proved that West Virginia Conference football teams could compete with any small college team in the nation.

Coach Duvall has long desired that area football fans would grow to appreciate FSC's brand of football. East-West Stadium was filled to capacity when the Falcons met Waynesburg and a fine crowd was on hand for the semi-final game with Northern Michigan. A second dream that Coach Duvall has had was to bring a national championship back to the college on the hill.

Duvall came to Fairmont State in 1952 and since that time has compiled a record of 99 victories, 30 defeats, and 3 ties. Included in this record are seven WVIAC Conference championships and this year a NAIA national title.

Duvall attended local schools, graduating from Fairmont State College and Columbia University where he obtained his M.A. degree.

Before the Big One:
First It Was Waynesburg,
Then It Was Northern Michigan

The Champions were wined and dined by the civic clubs.

WE HAD SCADS OF FANS—All the way from the home games on through the national playoffs, the Falcons had a following that jammed every stadium. The Falcon fever was rampant. Here is a section of the bleachers on Rosier Field as they ripped Bluefield.

Some days were sunny—then, there were days of mud and slush as we downed the nation's No. 1 Waynesburg team.

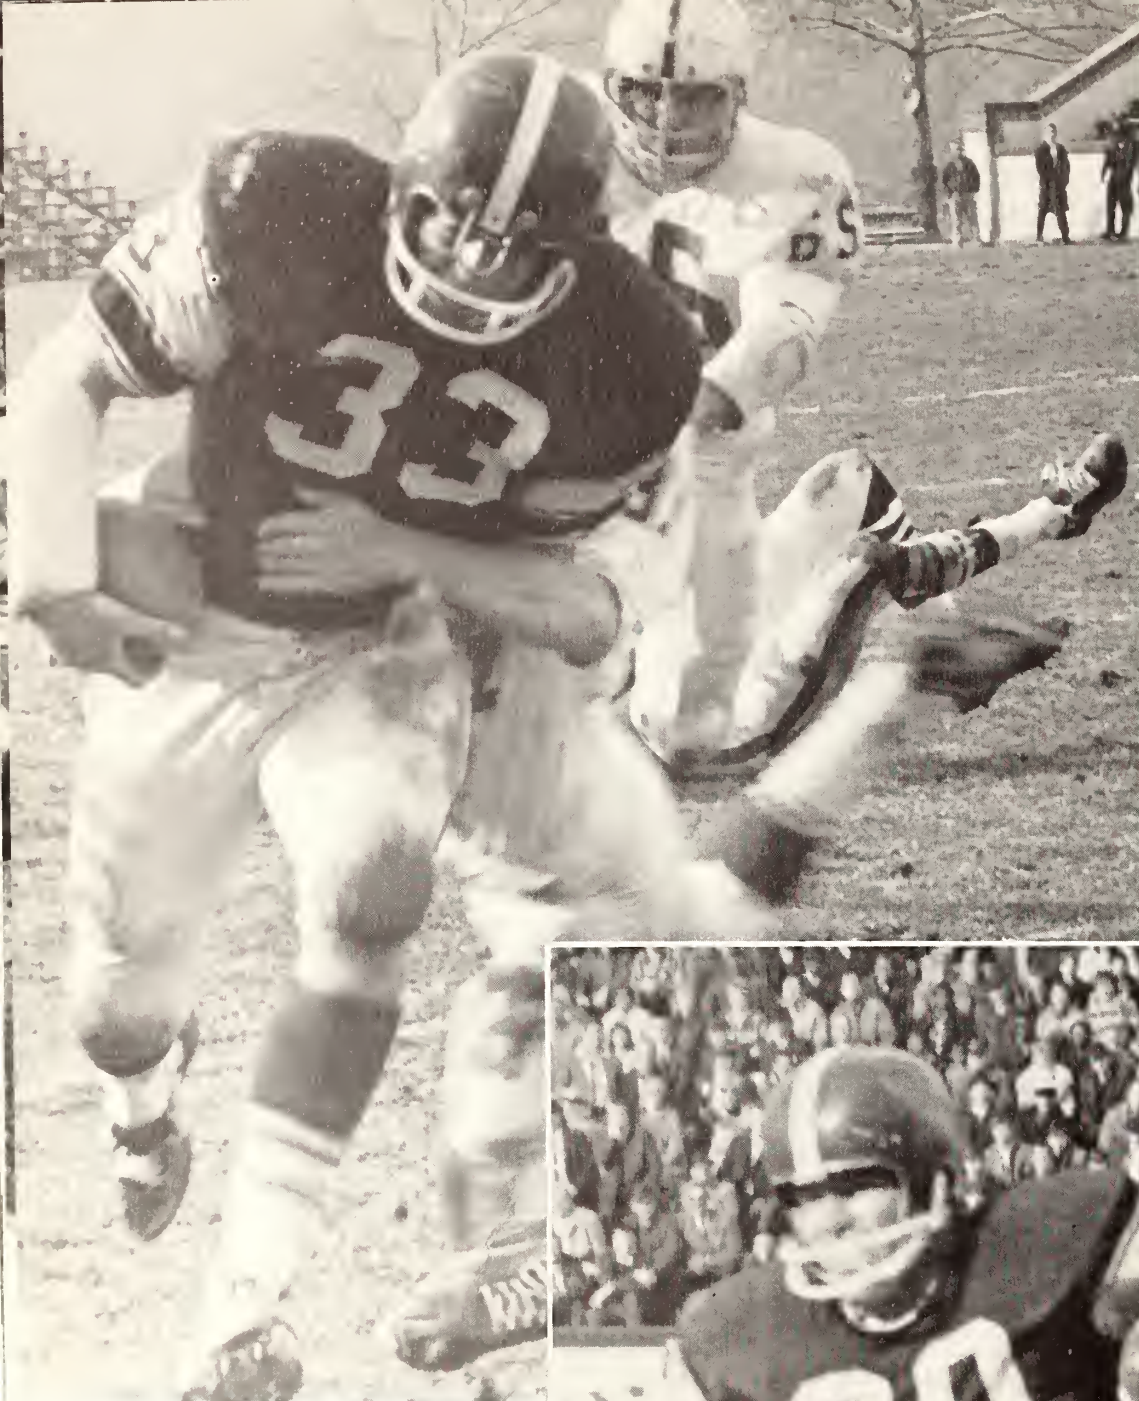

FAIRMONT, W.VA. NOV. 25—FALCONS ON MOVE—Fullback Larry Blackstone (33) gains for Fairmont State in 21-7 upset of top-rated Northern Michigan University. Blackstone was Fairmont's leading rusher with 110 yards.

FALCONS TAKE TO AIR—End Jim Mertens (82) at left and back George Edwards (43) are shown hauling in passes as Fairmont State defeated Northern Michigan in NAIA regional playoff.

THE FINALS—The unforgettable campaign was climaxed when the Falcons met the Eastern Washington State Savages from Cheney, Washington for the NAIA national championship at Mountaineer Field in Morgantown.

FSC'S FALCONS FIGHT BACK —from a 14-7 half-time deficit to scalp the Savages 28-21. The winning tally came in the fourth quarter on a run by George Clayton Edwards from 24 yards out. East had met West and the Falcons were National Champs.

HOW SWEET IT IS—Coach Duvall says "that's it boys, just like I said—you're the Nation's No. 1."

WVIAC Basketball Champs

In what was supposed to be a rebuilding year, Coach Joe Retton turned in what has to be called his greatest coaching job ever. With the graduation of all time leading scorer Dave Miller and the loss of scoring ace Bill Moody before the season started, most people wrote the Falcons off for the 1967-68 Basketball campaign.

Lacking size and a big scorer the Falcons concentrated on a stingy defense along with a fast break offense and scrapped their way to the regular season championship.

The Falcons lost to Morris Harvey in the championship round of the tournament forcing a three game play off. FSC won two straight games to clinch their trip to the NAIA Tournament in Kansas City.

Fairmont State entered the tournament with a 21-5 record. Leading the scoring attack for the roundballers were John Jamerson with a 22.7 average, Wayne Denham with a 17.3 average and Dave Shaffer with 16.1. Other Falcons scoring in double figures were Don Prickett—12.5, Pat Sloan—11.0, and Dave Gardner—10.6.

In addition to potent scoring, Denham pulled down 21.9 rebounds per game, which put him among NAIA leaders in this department. Denham grabbed a high of 34 rebounds in a game against D&E.

This was the Falcons second trip to the NAIA basketball tourney in three years. FSC finished fourth in a 32 team field in 1965.

At press time the Falcons were awaiting the beginning of the NAIA Tournament in Kansas City.

Morris Harvey and Fairmont continued their fierce basketball rivalry with the Falcons taking the measure of the Golden Eagles on the home bench while they defeated FSC in Charleston. Fairmont State edged the Charleston boys 3-2 in the overall season series.

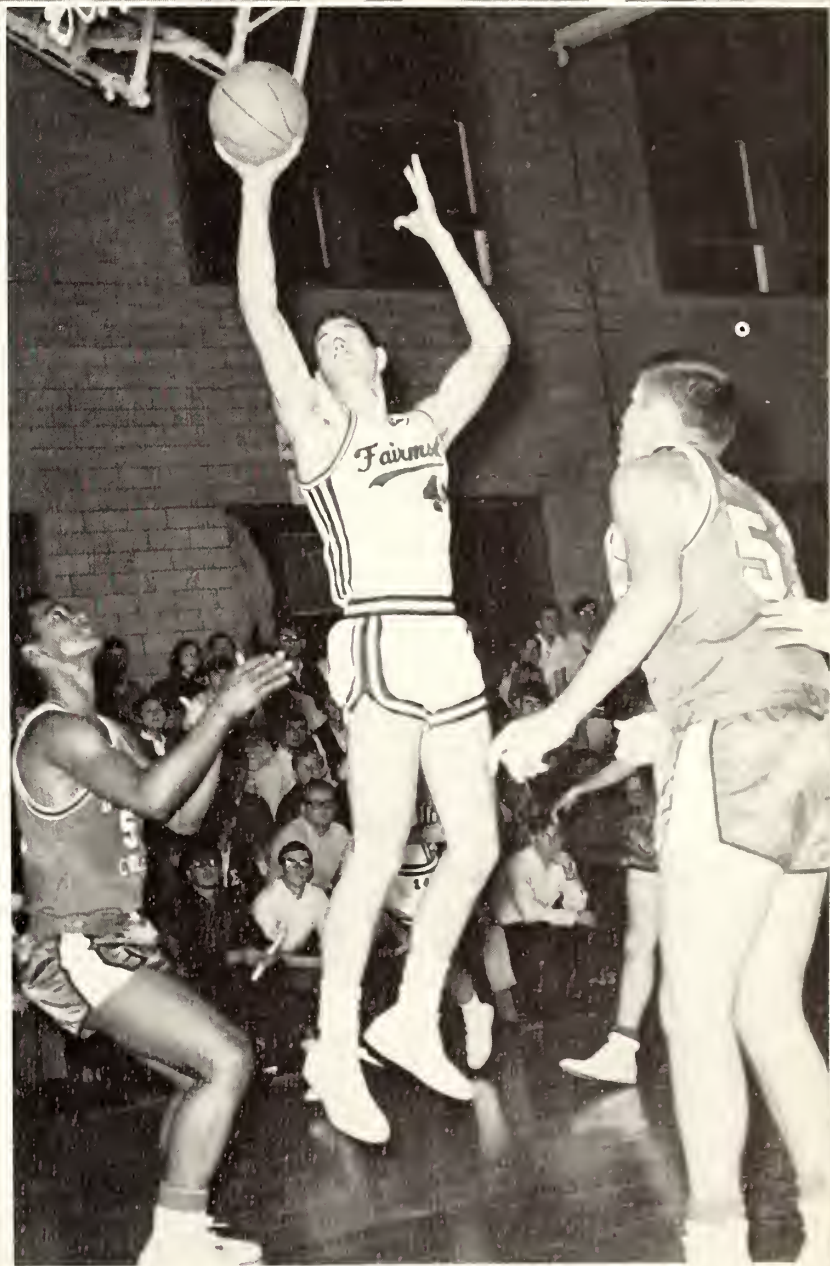

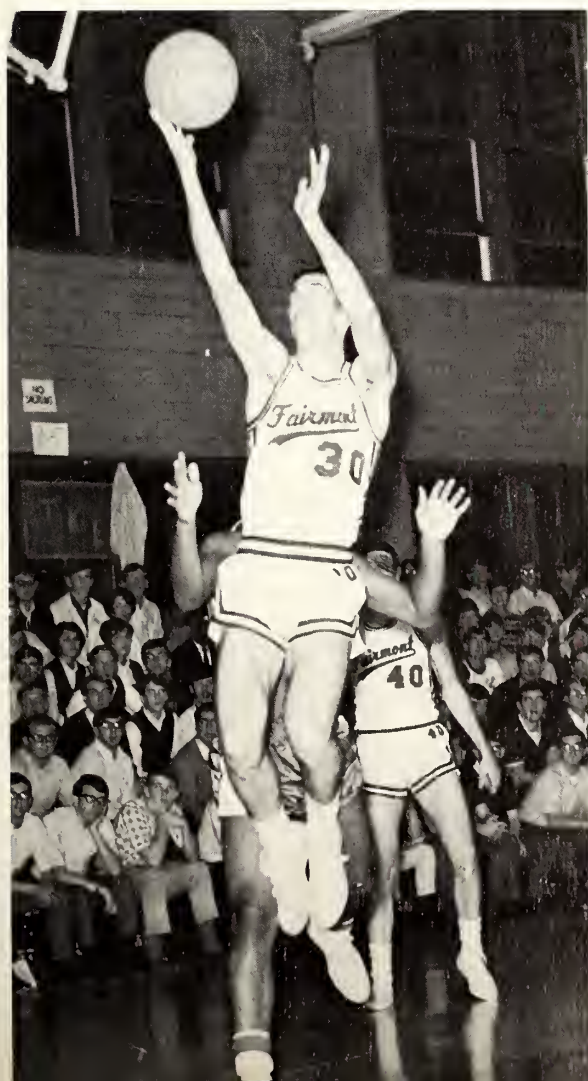

As usual Wheeling gave Fairmont a mighty battle but the Falcons did manage to break Wheeling's home floor jinx which had dated back to the 1965 season.

West Liberty had the distinction of ending Fairmont's nine game winning streak in handing the Falcons their first defeat of the season.

Coach Retton again had a perfect record on the home boards—a feat which is quickly becoming traditional as in this game against West Liberty.

"Thank you, suh," says Coach Retton to Commissioner George Springer, for the WVIAC trophy.

But Morris Harvey didn't have quite enough to take the title . . . What a season for those Falcons.

Baseball Champs

The Falcon baseball team of Coach "Squibb" Wilson made their way into NAIA recognition during the 1967 diamond season. FSC captured the WVIAC championship in a double elimination series with West Virginia Tech and West Liberty. The Falcon's won three straight games in the rain delayed series to earn the right to enter NAIA Regional competition at Millersville, Pa.

Ace pitcher Tom Schweitzer was the mainstay of the Falcon staff and was named baseball player of the year in the WVIAC Conference. Jim Mertens led the conference in hitting by consistently hitting around the 450 mark all season long with several tape-measure home runs.

The Falcons entered the regionals at Millersville against the cream of the crop in NAIA Baseball. The Falcons dropped their first game of the series, therefore putting them at an immediate disadvantage. Characterizing that "never say die" attitude that has become synonymous with Fairmont State athletics, the diamondmen won three straight games to enter the finals against once beaten, by the Falcons, Glassboro, New Jersey. Having to play three games in one day took its toll on FSC and they dropped the final game. The Falcon baseball team however once again proved the superiority of WVIAC athletics and finished with an outstanding 15-3 record.

Oh! My aching back.

How It Was Done

CHARLESTON (AP)—Fairmont State College wrestlers captured individual championships in seven of the 11 weight classes to win the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tournament with 109 points.

Runnerup with 85 points and the other four individual titles, was defending champion, West Liberty State College. Also scoring were Wheeling, 28; Alderson-Broadus, 15; and Concord, 4.

Fairmont's winners of individual championships in the matches at the Charleston Civic Center were:

—Henry Pickens, 130-pound class; Sam Motley, 137; Steve Glascock, 145; Charles Nicholson, 152; Wayne Bitner 167; Dave Clark, 177; and Matt Fortier, unlimited.

Fairmont State's wrestlers, coached by Bill Kerr, upset West Virginia University's mat squad earlier in the week prior to the tournament.

The Falcons sported a record of 6-4-1 for the current season.

Swimming

Members of the FALCON TANKMEN had a season of five losses and no wins due mainly to academic troubles and no depth of numbers for the current team.

Golf

Fairmont State's Golf team, coached by Dr. J. Martin Taylor, had another pretty good season with several returning lettermen from the 1966 squad. Leading the way for the Falcon linkmen were Jim Mallamo, Ron Million, Steve Mikulski, and Tom Mikulski.

In the WVIAC Championship Golf Tournament held at Ogleby Park in Wheeling, the Falcons finished eighth in a field of eleven. Fairmont had a score of 324 compared with conference winner West Virginia State's 303.

The linkmen will have both Mallamo and Million back this spring to form a nucleus for another good team.

FSC GOLFERS—Ron Million, Jim Mallamo, Steve Mikulski, Bronson Reese, and Coach Dr. J. Martin Taylor.

FALCON TRACK TEAM—Row 1. C. Nicholson, D. Carpenter, J. White-scarver, L. Bennett, F. Waybright, J. Kara, B. Blackstone, S. Spensky, D. Clark, B. Wilson, M. Lantz, manager; row 2. F. Piern, G. Edwards, R. Robison, R. Blackstone, M. Williams, P. Baldree, C. Davis, S. Perry, F.

Tennis

Fairmont State's young tennis team sported a record of 3-6 for the 1967 season. The netmen downed West Virginia Wesleyan twice and West Liberty once. Defeats came at the hands of Morris Harvey twice, Salem College twice, Frostburg once and California, Pa., once.

Soccer

Fairmont State's soccer team finished the season with a 1-9 mark, dropping their final game of the season to the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles, 3-1, in Charleston.

The only win recorded by Fairmont came over the Morris Harvey booters by a score of 4-3 on Oct. 7.

The Falcons dropped their eighth game of the season at the hands of St. Francis on Nov. 1. Housman again was the big scorer for the Falcons as he kicked in two goals, while teammate Sam Perry added the other tally.

"What To Do With a Drunken Sailor"

The history of the Song Fest dates back to the spring of 1949 when it began as a competitive measuring stick among the sororities on campus. It was carried on in the spring of the following year but was dropped in 1951. After an alternating sequence of being presented, and not being presented, the Song Fest was revived by an invitation for the fraternities on campus to take part and compete under a men's division. Since that time the Song Fest has had continuous success, being presented every year except 1958. Below are the winners for the various years.

A MAN CAN GROW

-And Keep On Growing

WITH OWENS-ILLINOIS GLASS COMPANY

Ours is a growing company—and we can grow together in fields where a man has ample opportunity and room to carve out a satisfying life-time career.

We offer you stability that is inherent in the business of manufacturing and distributing a variety of goods, continually being broadened by the development of new products reaching new markets.

You can enjoy the advantages that come from association with a company which is outstanding in reputation and prestige in its field.

You can benefit from a training program that has proved its worth to a large number of young men during the past several years as we have expanded our operations.

You can have the security to be found in an organization where men stay and grow with a growing company, where there are liberal life and health insurance plans, and solidly established retirement plans.

- .....
